To whom it may concern,

This letter is to confirm that students from the Clubclass English Language School who completed the NCUK International Foundation Year are eligible for admission into any of the Undergraduate/Bachelor programs as offered both by the United International Business Schools organization (UIBS) and the European College for Liberal Studies (ECLS), including but not limited to the following:

-  BBS - Bachelor in Business Studies (180 European credits)
-  BBA - Bachelor of Business Administration (180 European credits)
-  BA - Bachelor of Arts in Design Management (180 European credits)
-  BA - Bachelor of Arts in Fashion Management (180 European credits)
-  BA - Bachelor of Arts in Hospitality Management (180 European credits)
-  BA - Bachelor of Arts in Sports Management (180 European credits)
-  BA - Bachelor of Arts in Technology Management (180 European credits)
-  BA - Bachelor of Arts in Tourism Management (180 European credits)
-  BLS - Bachelor in Liberal Studies (180 European credits)
-  BA - Bachelor of Arts in Asian Studies (180 European credits)
-  BA - Bachelor of Arts in Communication Studies (180 European credits)
-  BA - Bachelor of Arts in European Studies (180 European credits)
-  BA - Bachelor of Arts in International Relations (180 European credits)

All program specializations, additional programs and further information is listed on the school's websites at <http://www.UIBS.org> and <http://www.ECLS.org> respectively.

Students who, for whatever reason, only partially completed the NCUK International Foundation year may be eligible for admission into a customized Undergraduate Foundation program of up to an additional 60 European credits that then continues automatically with any of our own Undergraduate/Bachelor programs.

Applications may be submitted online through the school's website, or by registered mail. An additional English proficiency requirement applies as well. For further information about the admission process and other requirements, please refer to the school's websites.

Feel free to let us know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Thierry Kirschstein
Managing Director
